

We are delighted to invite nominations for the VRA awards 2020.

Thank you for taking the time to enable us to give this much deserved recognition for all the valuable work that our members do to support others.

As well as recognising excellence, we believe that these awards encourage practitioners to strive to be the best they can, to provide the best services possible for people facing obstacles to participating in work or other meaningful occupation.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR ALL CATEGORIES

- ★ Nominators can make as many different nominations as they wish.
- ★ Nominators may include but are not limited to providers, tutors, purchasers and employers.
- ★ It is perfectly acceptable for a nominator to consult with their nominee when constructing the nomination, should they wish to do so.
- ★ Self-nominations are welcome.
- ★ At the time of the application, all nominees (or at least one nominee within a team award) must be members of the VRA, but nominators do not have to be members
- ★ Each individual nomination should be on its specific form: see supplementary documents
- ★ All applications must conform with GDPR. Other than the nominee and any nominator, no individual should be identifiable within the nomination or the appendices (e.g. client/ patient/ customer/ service user/ colleague etc).
- ★ All submissions can be supported by testimonials (in an appendix) which are extra to any indicative word count. Testimonials external to the company carry more weight. However, these appendices should not contain any of the 'case' for the nomination (i.e. they should not be used to extend word count facility as they are merely supporting key elements)
- ★ Any appendices should be incorporated at the end of the nomination form and if this involves pasting scanned documents, they must be legible and clear.
- ★ For each nomination there are 3 relevant documents:
 - This guidance document
 - The specific category nomination form
 - The judging sheet for that category, which shows how your nomination will be scored
- ★ Awards are decided at the discretion of the judging panel and all decisions are final
- ★ Award winners will be announced at an event in November
- ★ All nominees should make themselves available for the awards event
- ★ All who are subsequently short listed should attend to be able to receive an award.
- ★ If you are shortlisted and find that you cannot attend, you must identify a substitute who will receive the award for you. If no one is present to accept the award at the event, it will be reallocated.
